If you love listening to music while you're cooking or doing the dishes but there's hardly any room to put down a radio, this Nedis FM under-cabinet radio offers the perfect space-saving upgrade.

Simply install it under a kitchen cupboard or shelf with the included drilling template and screws.

The radio integrates a countdown function and stopwatch with alarm, which means you can also use it as a kitchen timer.

However, this under-cabinet radio is far more versatile. Think of mounting it in a workshop or shed, or in your bedroom as it also features a clock radio with snooze button, as well as a sleep timer for you to doze off to your favourite music.
